

PRESS RELEASE

LONMAR FINE ART & SPECIE CAPABILITIES ENHANCED WITH NEW HIRE

Leading Lloyd's broker LONMAR GLOBAL RISKS (LONMAR) today announced the appointment of Charles Ross as an executive director in their Lonmart fine art & specie division.

Charles will report to Aqua Sanfelice, managing director of Lonmart, and will be involved in developing new opportunities for the division with a particular focus on reinsurance.

Charles is a highly experienced broker and business producer with over 30 years in the fine art and specie insurance field. He has held a number of senior positions in both global and niche brokers.

Aqua Sanfelice, LONMART's managing director, stated: "I am extremely pleased that Charles has joined us at Lonmart, He will be a great addition to our team".

She added: "This recruitment continues our ongoing strategy of strengthening our capabilities and in particular adds important reinsurance expertise for our core product lines."

Charles Ross commented, "I am very excited about joining Lonmart and about working alongside this highly respected fine art & specie team."

LONMAR is part of Global Risk Partners Ltd (GRP), the specialist investment vehicle for brokers and MGAs. GRP is one of the fastest growing businesses in the UK broking sector, with a strong platform in the London Market through Lonmar and Ropner.
